

Experience You Want, Answers You Need<sup>SM</sup> Since 1993

We have been taught all of our lives to work, work, work, and the prospect of retiring and walking away from "work" can be daunting. M.G. Crisci's humorous, enlightening and insightful look into how he reinvented his "career" after retirement gives all of us hope that the best days truly do lie ahead. Our audience was fascinated by Mr. Crisci's tales about how even the smallest life events can lead to greater discovery in the future. We hope to have him back for another presentation very soon!
