

A memorable evening for members and friends of the International Women's Air & Space Museum

FOR WHOM THE BELL HAS YET TO TOLL

How could the story of Lilia Lityvak, the world's most prolific female fighter-pilot, be lost in time for 60 years?

Take a walk through a part of history virtually unknown in the United States with best-selling and critically-acclaimed American author, M.G. Crisci, who has appeared at the United Nations, the Russian Cultural Centre in Washington D.C., and Rossiyskaya Gazeta in Moscow, among venues. His remarks include never-before seen pictures and entertaining videos that provide insights that are sure to amaze and surprise.

LEARN MORE AT WWW.MGCRISCI.COM

Toddler.

Schoolgirl.

Teenager.

Warrior.

Poster Child.

Woman in Love.

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 13TH AT 6:30 PM.
DINNER, FOLLOWED BY PROGRAM.

International Women's Air & Space Museum

Burke Lakefront Airport / Cleveland, Ohio

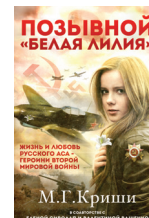

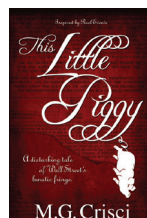

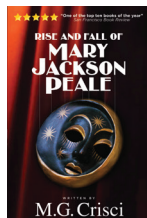

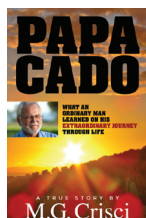

1501 N. Marginal Road

Reservations:

Call 216-623-1111 or book online at www.iwasm.org

SPECIAL BONUS

Everyone in attendance will have the chance to receive an autographed MG Crisci book of their choosing.

www.mgcrisci.com

facebook.com/worldofmgcrisci

twitter.com/worldofmgcrisci

youtube.com/worldofmgcrisci

pinterest.com/worldofmgcrisci