

One Night Only in Washington, D.C.
An entertaining evening for friends and guests of the Ukrainian Embassy.

MEET AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR: M.G. CRISCI

THE WORLD OF
M.G. Crisci

Stories that entertain.
People you'll remember.
Literature that matters.

www.mgcrisci.com

Learn how his collaboration with two passionate Ukrainian women created the definitive book about the gallant teenager, Lilia Litvyak, the world's first and most successful female fighter pilot, who disappeared over the Eastern Ukraine 60 years ago.

THE MYSTERY OF LILIA.

Learn why it took Ukrainian-born Valentina Vaschenko 48 years to find Lilia's plane and remains, and have her exploits officially recognized by President Mikhail Gorbachev.

THE STORY BEHIND THE STORY.

Learn how an American with no Russian or Ukrainian ancestry convinced a skeptical but passionate Ukrainian Museum Curator and her colleague, a Ukrainian history teacher, to collaborate from 6,000 miles away.

MAKING OF THE STORY.

View never-before-seen posters and photographs, compliments of the tiny Lilia Litvyak school and museum in Krasny Luch.

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 10TH AT 7 PM
THERE WILL BE A RECEPTION WITH TRADITIONAL UKRAINIAN FOODS

Embassy of the Ukraine to the United States of America
3350 M Street, Washington, D.C. 2007

CALL NOW TO RESERVE YOUR SEATS: 202-349-2928

BONUS: Everyone in attendance will receive a free, autographed copy of the book, compliments of the Ukrainian Embassy and the Author.